Governor Colyer proclaims October as Co-op Month in Kansas

On Oct. 1, Governor Jeff Colyer signed a proclamation in his ceremonial office recognizing October as Co-op Month in Kansas. KEC's BRUCE GRAHAM, LESLIE KAUFMAN, and TARA MAYS joined other cooperative representatives for the signing ceremony.

KEC's Bruce Graham, Leslie Kaufman, and Tara Mays joined other cooperative representatives for Gov. Colyer's signing of the Co-op Month proclamation in the ceremonial office on Oct. 1.

Many electric cooperatives are marking Co-op Month with community events designed to communicate the cooperative difference including Butler's customer appreciation week, FreeState's Energy Fair and member

In addition to Co-op Month, the Governor's Office also issued proclamations declaring Oct. 5 as Kansas Energy Efficiency Day, and Oct. 15-19 as Careers in Energy Week in Kansas.

Co-op officials represent Kansas at the NRECA Region 7 Meeting

More than 750 co-op directors, managers, and staff attended the NRECA Region 7 & 9 Meetings in Anchorage, AK, Sept. 25-27. The co-op officials gathered to discuss challenges facing the electric utility industry and determine the policies and priorities to be implemented by NRECA in the coming year.

Keith Ross, NRECA Kansas Director, serves as the presiding officer for the second General Session at the NRECA Region 7 & 9 Meeting on Sept. 26.

BRUCE GRAHAM, KEC, and KIRK THOMPSON, CMS, served on the Resolutions Committee in which Thompson was chair for the second consecutive year. KEITH ROSS, NRECA Kansas Director, served as the presiding officer for the second general session. CHUCK GOECKEL, Flint Hills, represented Kansas on the Nominating Committee. BRIAN LANG, DS&O, was newly-elected to serve on the Cooperative Management, Employment, and Community (CEMC) Committee as part of the NRECA resolutions process. Graham is currently serving on the Legislative Committee.

Approximately 50 Kansas cooperative representatives attended the meeting that covered topics including electric vehicles, the "Commitment to Zero Contacts" initiative, cybersecurity, and the Lexicon Project. There were a series of breakout sessions, committee meetings, and directors courses. In addition to the NRECA program, ACRE hosted a breakfast meeting, and CFC and Federated Rural Electric Insurance held their district meetings.

Additionally, trustees who had completed the requirements for the Credentialed Cooperative Director, the Board Leadership Certificate, and the Director Gold credentials were recognized at the Regional meeting.

The Anchorage meeting was one of five NRECA regional meetings.

These meetings continue the co-ops' grassroots policy making process, which culminates at NRECA's 77th Annual Meeting in Orlando, FL, March 7-13, 2019.

Rolling Hills Electric co-hosts Co-opportunity Day

Rolling Hills Electric, Farmway Credit Union and Central Valley Ag co-hosted their annual Co-opportunity Day in Beloit on Oct. 5. The three co-ops have been sponsoring the yearly appreciation luncheon for 22 years.

Rolling Hills linemen grilled burgers, and attendees were served sides and dessert. Nearly 300 members and community residents attended the luncheon event held at Rolling Hill's Beloit facility. Attendees were also encouraged to donate non-perishable items for the local food pantry.

Hungry members and guests line up for a free lunch sponsored by Central Valley Ag, Farmway Credit Union and Rolling Hills to celebrate Co-op Month.

upcoming training

Directors CCD and Board Leadership courses set for January

Prior to the KEC Annual Meeting, three directors courses will be offered at the Capitol Plaza, Topeka, in January.

On Saturday, Jan. 26, directors will have a choice between a CCD course and a Board Leadership course. KEVIN SUMP will facilitate 2630.1 Strategic Planning. This course teaches how to participate effectively in strategic thinking and planning processes. SCOTT LUECAL will facilitate 975.1 Capital Credits Issues and Decisions. This course helps directors understand the co-op's capital credits policy.

On Sunday, Jan. 27, Sump will facilitate the Board Leadership course 955.1 Your Board's Culture: Its Impact on Effectiveness. This course explains the concept of boardroom culture through an examination of case studies.

Detailed program information will be emailed closer to the meeting dates.

Kansas electric cooperatives plan post-election Co-ops Vote events

Electric cooperatives will soon be hosting a series of Co-ops Vote events designed for legislators to learn more about the electric cooperative industry in Kansas.

Currently, nine events running from Nov. 13 through Dec. 14 are scheduled for co-op staff and trustees to host newly elected legislators and returning lawmakers. These events will include briefings by KEC staff on cooperative issues likely to come before the 2019 Kansas Legislature, and what sets co-ops apart from other business structures. Depending on the location, attendees will be able to tour the host facility, as well.

“These Co-ops Vote events are a great opportunity to engage legislators while educating them about the important work that electric cooperatives across Kansas do and the issues that are most important to our cooperatives and their members,” said Tara Mays, KEC’s Manager of Government Relations.

Each Co-ops Vote event is hosted by multiple co-ops. The schedule includes the following (some dates still tentative):

- ▶ NOV. 13: Radiant, Lyon-Coffey, and Flint Hills (Lebo)
- ▶ NOV. 26: Rolling Hills, DS&O, Bluestem, and Nemaha-Marshall (Clay Center)

- ▶ NOV. 28: Midwest Energy, Ninnescah, and Ark Valley (Pratt)
- ▶ DEC. 4: FreeState and KEPCo (Topeka)
- ▶ DEC. 7: Heartland, Caney Valley, and Twin Valley (Girard)
- ▶ DEC. 10: Sedgwick County, Sumner-Cowley, and Butler (Wichita)
- ▶ DEC. 11: Sunflower, Prairie Land, and Western (Hays)
- ▶ DEC. 11: CMS, Pioneer, Wheatland, Victory, and Lane-Scott (Dodge City)
- ▶ DEC. 14: Brown-Atchison, Doniphan, and Nemaha-Marshall (Axtell)

Midwest Energy holds Annual Meeting

Midwest Energy held its annual meeting Oct. 15 at the Robbins Center at Fort Hays State University. Nearly 100 people attended the meeting.

The five winners of the 2018 Youth Tour, SAM BRETZ, CADEN PFEIFER, TIFFANY PFEIFER, PARKER VULGAMORE, and GAGE WINGER spoke about their trip to Washington, D.C., this past summer.

Re-elected to the board were LOUISE BERNING, JUANITA STECKLEIN, and DALE UNRUH.

Co-ops host consolidation information meetings

In preparation for the proposed consolidation between Lyon-Coffey and Radiant, the cooperatives jointly hosted a series of eight Town Hall Meetings for their members this month.

Board members and staff were on hand to answer questions prior to the vote at a special membership meeting scheduled for Nov. 5. The cooperatives have also created an informational website: VoteYesNovember5.com.

If approved on Nov. 5, the effective date of the consolidation will be Jan. 1, 2020, and the new consolidated cooperative will be known as 4 RIVERS ELECTRIC COOPERATIVE, INC.

The consolidation would provide a forecasted cost savings of almost $9 million over a 10-year period for the nearly 13,000 member accounts across 14 Kansas counties.

Electric co-ops participate in Kansas Energy Efficiency Expo

Kansas homeowners were invited to discover how to save energy and make their homes more efficient at the Kansas Energy Efficiency Expo on Oct. 5, 2018.

Four electric cooperatives participated in the event that took place on the south lawn of the Kansas Statehouse. Representatives from BLUESTEM, BROWN-ATCHISON, FREESTATE, and LYON-COFFEY electric cooperatives were on hand to share their knowledge about residential energy efficiency.

The co-op booth featured interactive energy efficiency displays that showcased comparisons of different types of lighting and insulation options, and included a water heater cross section.

Despite the rain, several hundred people attended the event.

“They loved the hands-on displays,” commented Mike Tweedy, Lyon-Coffey. “There were also a lot of questions about ground source heat pumps.”

Other vendors at the expo included the Kansas Housing Resources Corporation, Kansas Spray Foam Insulation, Topeka Metro, U.S. Environmental Protection Agency for Region 7, Westar Energy, and a variety of interior design and architecture companies.

The event was sponsored by the Kansas Corporation Commission and the Kansas Energy Program through a grant from the U.S. Department of Energy.

The Kansas Governor’s Office issued a proclamation declaring Oct. 5 as Kansas Energy Efficiency Day, mirroring the National Energy Efficiency Day movement, whose theme for 2018 was “Save Energy, Save Money.”

Kansas Electric Cooperative staff accepts new challenges

KEC is pleased to announce that several staff members are taking on new responsibilities as an effort to meet changing needs.

VICKI ESTES has been promoted to Director of Communications and will retain her duties as Editor of Kansas Country Living. Estes has been with KEC since 2015, in which time she has led the magazine's request for proposal (RFP) initiative, along with the subsequent selection and transition to a new printing vendor and an in-depth study of the magazine's processes that has led to improved workflows.

Under her direction, the magazine has diversified its content, joined other statewide magazines in an annual audit by the Alliance of Audited Media to increase exposure to advertisers, and continues to build goodwill and improve engagement with Kansas electric co-op members.

SHANA READ has been named Director of Education and Training, and will continue her work with KEC's youth programs, Rural Power, and Touchstone Energy.

Read joined KEC in 2002, in which time she has enriched and increased the participation of the youth programs and created the successful Communications Internship program that has resulted in several co-op placements. She has served on both the Certified Cooperative Communicator (CCC) Program Board and NRECA's Council of Rural Electric Communicators (CREC), and was honored as a Touchstone Energy Brand Champion. Read will now focus more of her time in the development of training opportunities for electric cooperative board members, managers and employees.

Several additional KEC staff members are also accepting new duties.

CAROL DORR, Executive Secretary, is further developing her communication skills by helping to design centerspread layouts, as well as updating KEC's website and members-only section.

ANGELA HOWARD, Staff Accountant, has taken on the additional responsibilities of KEC's information technology needs—both internally and for KEC's annual and summer meetings. She is applying her attention to detail as a proofreader for Kansas Country Living, as well as creating reports and handling returns for the magazine. Also, Howard is increasing her benefits administration responsibilities.

CARRIE KIMBERLIN, Manager of Creative Solutions, continues to manage all publishing services jobs and the KEC website. She is now the primary contact for the co-op centerspread editors and manages the production of the cooperatives' centerspreads.

KEC applauds these employees for their willingness to challenge themselves with new and changing duties to best meet members' growing needs and expectations.

Steve and Kathy Jimmerson

STEVE JIMMERSON, Journeyman Tree Trimmer at Victory, and his wife Kathy both died Oct. 4 in a head-on collision. Steve had served at Victory for the past 10 years.

A celebration of life was held Oct. 12 at Victory's warehouse. The co-op greeted mourners with two digger trucks raising the American flag. Steve's work truck, along with photos, were on display at the memorial. Approximately 200 people were in attendance. The co-op hosted a barbecue dinner following the event.

Memorials may be made to the Trinity Manor's Memorial Funds, 510 West Frontview St., Dodge City, KS 67801 or the Pet Miracle Network, 11451 East US 50, Dodge City, KS 67801.

Kansas Touchstone Energy holds annual membership meeting

Fifteen trustees, managers, and brand managers representing a dozen Kansas Touchstone Energy cooperatives attended the Touchstone Energy Annual Membership Meeting at Butler Electric on Oct. 15.

As part of the business portion of the meeting, the membership approved the 2019 budget and member assessment.

Re-elected to the Executive Council for a three-year term were BRUCE MUELLER, Wheatland, (manager position); and TRAVIS GRIFFIN, Butler, (brand manager position). ERIC ANDERSEN, Rolling Hills, was elected to the vacant trustee position, and STEVE FOSS, FreeState, to the vacant manager position. Officers are Mueller as Chairperson, Foss as Vice Dennis Deines, Western, joins the other meeting attendees in learning about the augmented reality options offered through the Touchstone Energy Experience app. The app was featured during the national program review at the Touchstone Energy Annual Membership Meeting held at Butler Electric on Oct. 15.

Chair, and DENNIS DEINES, Western, as Secretary/Treasurer.

ANNE HARVEY, Touchstone Energy, gave an update on the national program activities. She encouraged all Touchstone Energy cooperatives to complete the inventory checklist so they can best understand the value of the program for their individual co-op.

RON GRABER, Heartland, spoke about his experience at the Regional Member meeting. SHANA READ, KEC, presented the state program review, highlighting the Kansas State Fair. NIKKI PFANNENSTIEL, Sunflower, gave an update on the Kansas ElectroRally and called for volunteers for future events.
